BIOGRAPHY

ORION

Since 1994, ORION has been an integral part of the international electronic music scene as a DJ, promoter, and producer. His many years of experience are reflected in both his productions and his performances.

For over 18 years now, he has been hosting a show on Finnish national radio, which is now considered the leading medium for electronic music in Finland. The show is known for introducing new music early on and picking up on trends within the electronic scene.

As an artist, he is described by colleagues as extremely reliable, professional, and transparent. He is constantly working on new tracks and projects. His music has been released on renowned labels such as H-Productions, Soma, Mord, and Mindtrip. His Beatport #1 hit with the track “Tribe,” in collaboration with Cari Lekebusch, remained in the Beatport Top 100 for 193 days. Another Beatport #1 release appeared with the “No Good Deed Remix” for B. Riley.

Orion is in high demand internationally for live performances. His appearances have taken him to various countries, including the USA, Russia, and even Greenland. He has also played at legendary clubs such as the Kit Kat Club and Ministry of Sound. In addition, he runs his own label, Absence of Facts, which regularly releases vinyl and digital recordings and stands for uncompromising, timeless techno.
